A NOTE FROM AHR EXPO SHOW MANAGEMENT
We are eight months away from our event in Chicago. With time to plan, learn and adapt, AHR Expo Show Management, our industry partners, endorsing organizations and industry colleagues are committed to hosting a safe event experience in January 2021.

With that in mind, we are communicating with Chicago city officials, our vendors and industry partners to follow necessary guidelines. We will update any new information on our website as we know it.

The AHR Expo plays an essential role in bringing together the HVACR industry to experience products as they launch, offer demos for deeper understanding and networking opportunities for growth in both business and knowledge. We’re looking forward to seeing you in Chicago as we regain our momentum. Until then, we wish you continued business success in these challenging times.
